C., April, 1899 At times froth and scum have covered it over so completely as to conceal the deep strong current flowing far beneath. But the real movement, going forward with wonderful sweep and power, has already declared its significance and proved its beneficence. The real woman s movement has been not for woman suffrage, nor for the legal emancipation of woman from male subjection, but for woman s better education. Its significance is that it aims to prepare woman by adequate training to accomplish for herself and for society what cannot be secured through legislation nor by the aid of man. It recognizes a truth which should scarcely need to be stated, to-wit: that women as well as men must make their own careers, and that they need for this purpose as well as men the broadest and most thorough training possible. The beneficence of the woman s movement is already manifest by its arousing the interest and active support of men and women everywhere conspicuous for philanthropy and broad-mindedness. Its advocates...
