Excerpt from The Gateway to Citizenship: A Manual of Principles and Procedures for Use by Members of the Bench and Bar, the Staff of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Civil and Educational Authorities, and Patriotic Organizations in Their Efforts to Dignify and Emphasize the Significant In the future days, which we seek to make secure, we look forward to a world founded upon four essential human freedoms. The first is freedom of speech and expression everywhere in the world. The second is freedom of every person to worship God in his own way everywhere in the world. The third is freedom from want - which, translated into world terms, means economic understandings which will secure to every nation a healthy peacetime life for its inhabitants everywhere in the world. The fourth is freedom from fear - which, translated into world terms, means a world-wide reduction of armaments to such a point and in such a thorough fashion that no nation will be in a position to commit an act of physical aggression against any neighbor - anywhere in the world. That...
