Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.From a young age, Ruth had always been difficult and never satisfied with what she had. As soon as she got her way she would move onto the next thing in her long line of requirements. Nothing changed when she grew up, apart from the value of the things she demanded. Her background was working class and finances had always been an issue, so her goal was to net herself a rich man. Beautiful as she was it did not take long for her to achieve this, but as usual it just wasn't enough. By the time they divorced her husband had lost his home, and most of his money, while she continued to live a wealthy and pampered lifestyle. She could have almost been forgiven if she had let it end there, but her avaricious nature was still very much in evidence, despite the luxury surrounding her. As rich as she was, she saw nothing wrong with targeting another rich older man and relieving him of his wealth. It was only after her second divorce that she realised that she was lonely, and she thought a rich young man might make a nice change. She didn't think herself capable of falling in love, and when she did and the sentiment wasn't returned, she began to suspect that she was being used in the same way that she had used others. Whilst he came from a good background, he didn't appear to have any accessible cash, but Ruth was happy to subsidise him, on the basis that they'd soon be married and eventually his inheritance would be shared with her. When she realised that he had other ideas,...
