Want to Be a Writer?: Then Do It Properly! (Paperback)

By Albert Jack

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Over the years I have often been asked by unpublished writers how they should go about finding a publisher. I am also often asked the question, what should I write about. And, whilst that is irritating; the chief reason being, That's your job, it is still a good question. (The main thing a writer has to do is to have the idea in the first place.) The answer, of course, is something that other people, your readers, will want to buy and then read and there are very simple ways to find out what that might be. To start with a writer has to consider their reader and what interests them. Can you come up with a book idea that will appeal to an 80 year old lady, a fifteen year old boy, a 25-year old girl and a middle aged man all at the same time? Because that is what you need to do, find as wide an audience as possible. Books about left handed, Norwegian badminton players will not enjoy big sales (with apologies to them) A couple...
