Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017.
Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.From my adolescence to my golden years and calmed old age, the reading of philosophy has always been a happy companion. My first serious encounter with philosophical ideas occurred when a friend lent me a novel -Nausea- published by Jean-Paul Sartre, the French philosopher. Fresh on my mind is still the memory of that afternoon of my youth when I read the novel from beginning to end on a bench in La Recoleta square in Lima, Peru. I thought then, What a fantastic novel! I will have to buy my own copy because this book must be studied. I must study philosophy. Although the years have inexorably passed, never have I ceased to read philosophy. Ciro Alegria, the Peruvian writer published a book whose title has always fascinated me: The world is wide and strange. Echoing Alegria, I will say: Philosophy is broad and alien-we must travel its amplitude. This booklet is the product of that journey of material and spiritual enrichment.
