Excerpt from Report of the Secretary of the Interior, Communicating the Report of John Claiborne, Special Agent Appointed to Collect Statistics on the Consumption of Cotton in Europe, 1858 Sir: A recent appropriation having been made by Congress to enable the Commissioner of Patents to collect and report information in relation to the consumption of cotton in the several countries of the world, you have been selected to aid in carrying out the objects of that appropriation. To render the desired information more reliable and complete, it has been judged expedient that you should visit different portions of Europe; and, as it is important that the result of your investigations should be laid before Congress at an early day of its next session, it will be necessary that you should commence your labors with the least possible delay. Time will not permit you to visit all the countries in the world where cotton is consumed, nor would such a course be expedient if it were practicable....
