Full Court Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Beneath every veneer, beneath the person who is you, there are secrets, never acknowledged, never told nor shared. It is your sexuality, and mine, a compendium of dark influences, of seeds sown, of lost fleeting moments that run us wild, ragged. Ever constant, we deny our nature of want, desire, guilt, shame. Ever constant, we succumb to the subterranean pull of pleasure and pain. It is here where the story begins. Welcome. The Simple Mechanic of Infinite Execution Linda A. Lavid Full Court Press, 104 pages, (paperback), $12.95, 9780981707075 (Reviewed July, 2013) Dear Reader, you are invited into this meta fiction novella from the very first sentence, wherein Ms. Lavid admits, while doing it, she's cajoling you with sexual and suggestive phrase, because, Dear Reader, you like to read about naughty girls, don't you? And so it goes, your voyeuristic romp on Lavid's runaway express train -her big long engine throbbing and chugging - see, you do like it, even though you might squirm or wince now and again, it carries you along, as it hurtles through a sexual encounter that begins in a corporate lunchroom where you are struck by the close proximity of the man and woman who are waiting for sandwiches. . .so close they could whisper. . .so close they could pass state secrets. . .so close no good is sure to come of it, where Let's Fly seals the deal. Sure, Dear Reader, come, volare! The verbal express gathers speed, as we fly, united, to her point: the way out is through! The heroine embraces her slutiness without guilt, without caring. She removes the chains of the past and is...
